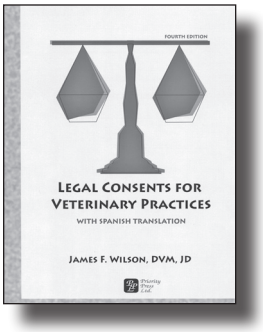
Legal Consents for Veterinary Practices

Fourth Edition

by James F. Wilson, DVM, JD



This important reference book provides a review of why legal consents are necessary, describes the fundamentals of the purpose and intent of consents, and compares differences between consents in human and veterinary medicine. It also includes 72 example consent forms for review, including consents for treatment, anesthesia, dental care, boarding, and much more. In addition, each form is provided on a CD for customization of the forms for your own practice. For a full description of this book and access to its Table of Contents, visit www.pmvc.net and click on the "Publications" tab.
